

Amateur radio is a vital service, as was proven on September 11th of this year. Allowing Broadband Internet Services over power lines will cause harmful interference to HF amateur radio operators. The FCC has promised to protect amateur radio spectrum, so it is time to prove the FCC means what it says. Thank you.